

The integration of research agendas. The objective is to merge, redirect and integrate research agendas of the involved partners (including the associate ones) as well as to influence the wider scientific communities. Related to this issue, there will be the contribution to relevant road-mapping activities. NESSoS will coordinate research agendas with other relevant initiatives in the area, including other NoEs, as, for instance, S-CUBE, the NoE on Software Service and Systems.