Widura Schwittek from UDE presented the CBK at networker ev. - a local networking event for academia and industry - an invited talk in 29. June 2012. networker e.v. is a regional forum for academia and software industry to come together and foster exchange between these two by presenting each other current topics and challenges as basis for future cooperation.