

The University of Málaga organized an event called "Coffee with Science" where researchers explained their research activities to secondary school students. Carmen Fernandez (UMA) contributed to this event by explaining to the students the scope of NESSoS.